

Topic/Mastery Task Name

Task Number Level # Certification Status (C/NC)

Optionally, if documenting a Mastery task, identify the task number and level. Use C or NC to identify whether the task is Certifiable or Non-Certifiable. Use the line above to identify this information. Delete the line if not needed.

This topic describes add brief description of the purpose/scope of the topic. Explain when and why the task is done (for example, in response to an alarm).

Introduction

This section is Optional. Add brief introduction to the topic. Delete the section if not needed.

Before You Begin

This section is Optional. Add description of anything the user needs to know before they start the task. Delete the section if not needed.

Detailed Procedure

Add a lead-in sentence. For example:

◆ To respond to an Ericsson alarm:

1. Add first step. For example, Confirm Connection to the device.
 - a. Add first sub-step. For example, Telnet to the device by entering:
`telnet <devicename>`
Add any system response
sub-step 2
2. Step 2.
 - a. Sub-step
Followed by substep w/o
 - b. 2nd substep

substep w/o

3. System response

Figure 1: Identify figure title here in initial caps

Note: all figure and table captions contain an embedded sequence number. To update the field, select the figure number, click the right mouse button, then select Update Field from the pop-up.

Table 1: Aligned with body text

CellHeading	CellHeadingN
CellBody	<ul style="list-style-type: none">□• CellBullet CellBullet w/o• CellBullet2– CellBullet3	CellBody
CellBody	CellBodyCntr	CellBodyRt

Related Topics

This section is Optional. For information about <description>, see the <topic name>. Make topic name a hot-link. Delete the section if not needed.

Printed copies of this information are UNCONTROLLED and could be obsolete.
Controlled Copy URL: show URL address of file
Page Last Updated: <date>
Approved by <Approver Name>